| | Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 5 | In April 2012 the organization became aware of a significant diversion of assets through misappropriation of funds by a former employee. The organization has chosen to report the diversion on the 2011 return to be consistent with the disclosure in the organizations 2011 audited financial statements. At the time of filing this return the investigation process is not complete and all of the facts regarding the diversion are not known. The organization has retained legal counsel and outside accountants to look into the matter and is reviewing its oversight procedures. The organization plans to pursue ameliorative actions, including seeking restitution, identifying appropriate legal actions and updating policies and procedures. |
| | Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11 | The Form 990 is prepared and reviewed by an independent CPA firm, reviewed and approved by certain members of the organization's board and management, and a final copy of the return as filed with the IRS is presented to the full board before filing with the IRS. |
| | Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c | Board members and officers are required to disclose potential conflicts of interest on an annual basis. |
| | Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15 | The President's compensation is reviewed and approved on an annual basis by the independent Board Executive Committee. They use comparable data for similar organizations in their review and document their decision in the Executive Committee minutes. Officer compensation other than the President is reviewed and approved on an annual basis by the independent Board Chair and Finance Committee Chair. They use comparable data for similar organizations in their review and document their decision in a memo to the Finance Dept. |
| | Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19 | The organization's governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and financial statements are made available to the public upon request. |
